Organization Description:

The Hole in the Wall Gang Camp, founded by Paul Newman, is a nonprofit, year-round center serving more than 25,000 children and families coping with chronic and life-threatening illnesses, all completely free of charge. Camp's goal is to ensure that every child with a serious medical condition has the chance to experience the world of possibilities that Camp has to offer. It's a community that celebrates the fun, friendship and spirit of childhood where, according to Mr. Newman, every kid can "raise a little hell".

Position Title:

Hospital Outreach Specialist - Philadelphia

Position Hours

Full-time, non-exempt

Location:

Philadelphia, PA

Position Description:

Develop and deliver Hole in the Wall Gang Camp style activities and interactions to young people (toddler through young adult), in hospital and clinic settings including individual, group, and event style programming. Collaborate with on-site professionals to offer supportive and uplifting programs for children and families affected by childhood illness. Bring the Core Values of The Hole in The Wall Gang Camp (Safety, Camaraderie, Possibility, and Appreciation) to all activities and interactions.

Our Hospital Outreach Specialist can expect to...

- Engage pediatric hospital and clinic patients in one-on-one games, arts and crafts, computer/multimedia projects, and other activities, in the patient's hospital room, the clinic waiting room, or other appropriate space.
- Plan and lead activity groups for pediatric patients and their siblings, alone or in collaboration with another Hospital Outreach Specialist.
- Involve patients' siblings, parents, and other family members in individual or group activities, as appropriate and desired by the patient and family.
- Manage daily and weekly schedule of hospital and clinic visits, incorporating input from hospital staff (Child Life, Art Program, Volunteer Services) in developing daily assignments and work flow.
- Adhere to all Camp and hospital mandated policies, procedures and trainings regarding credentialing, HIPAA, health and safety, etc.
- Maintain high professional standards as a representative of Camp with all stakeholders and external partners including in the hospital, and with children and families.
- Maintain inventory of supplies and materials for use in programming.

- Create, develop, and maintain an inventory of activities and offerings, and select activities for each individual or group interaction.
- Continually evaluate and assesses the effectiveness of activities presented and make necessary changes, additions or deletions.
- Maintain specific records on the evolution of program activities and their effectiveness.
- Cultivate relationships in and out of the Camp community that will provide new program ideas and opportunities.
- Collaborate with fellow HOP Specialists in research and development toward the enhancement of program offerings and other departments as needed.
- Complete and submit all required paperwork on time (reimbursement forms, monthly statistics, etc.).
- In collaboration with HOP Manager, maintain an inventory and budget for implementation of the program.
- Attend and contribute to all HOP and Camp meetings as scheduled.
- Represent the Camp as assigned at fundraising or other public events.
- Assist in the planning, preparation, and implementation of event-style programming to hospital partners/stakeholders in collaboration with colleagues.

Our Hospital Outreach Specialist should have...

- Previous experience working with children dealing with chronic or life-threatening illness.
- Preference for experience working at a camp that serves children and families facing serious illness such as those in the SeriousFun Children's Network.
- Preference for creative arts/teaching experience.
- The ability to establish positive relationships with a variety of people in multicultural environments.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Word and Outlook.
- Well-developed communication skills, both written and oral.
- Successful completion of pre-employment medical requirements of assigned hospitals, which may include physical exam and immunizations.
- A willingness and ability to attend both indoor or outdoor HITWG events.
- A willingness and ability to attend programming scheduled on weekday evenings. Some weekend support of Camp events may also be required.
- A willingness and ability to travel to assigned worksites.
- Valid driver's license and driving record which meets HITWG insurance carrier requirements.
